

Anden Stud was built on a passion to provide the best genetics to breeders and repeatedly proves to be a significant part of our families farming enterprise.

The Anden Stud comprises of Anden White Suffolks and Anden UltraWhites.

Anden Stud is forever evolving with the vision of Stud masters Andrew & Joel.

We are pleased to present another on-farm sale on the 2nd of October 2025. As in the past, we present high-quality Rams and Ewes to enhance any flock. Please feel free to download our 30th Annual on property Sale Catalogue when it becomes available on our website and we hope to see you on sale day.
